

Catchfire Press is pleased to announce a new competition for prose and poetry

Home is the Hunter

How many ways are there to celebrate what the Hunter Valley means to you? Every family has a story about coming to the Hunter. From the earliest of times, people have been moving into the valley and making it their home. They have been attracted by the beauty and bounty of the place, sought refuge from war and adversity, followed job opportunities, gathered together with their families or come just to enjoy the lifestyle.

Send us stories (fiction or non-fiction), poems and essays and share your love, laughter, pain and tears with our readers.

- Prose (200 - 2000 word limit)
- Poetry (up to 100 lines)

In each category:

First place - $350

Second place - $250

Commendations will be awarded

Send your entries by 31st of October 2015

with entry fee ($10.00 per entry) and completed entry form to:

HOME IS THE HUNTER, Catchfire Press, PO Box 72, WALLSEND, NSW, 2287.

Catchfire Press is also inviting cover designs for the next book, 'Home is the Hunter'.

There will be a $200 prize for the winning entry. No entry fee. Please attach your name and address to your entry, but not written on it.
